Malone Plumbing, Inc. was founded in 1999 by the company's president, Sean Malone. With more than a decade of commercial plumbing experience, Malone is a master plumber, licensed in numerous states. He has grown his Atlanta-based commercial plumbing business through a dedication to quality work delivered in a timely fashion and at a fair price.

Sean personally oversees the training and operations of his Atlanta plumbing business and his commercial plumbing crews to ensure that each and every job is completed with the utmost quality. In addition to his commitment to his company and his employees, Sean is also very active in both his church and community through both charitable donations and commitments as a youth soccer coach and referee. He resides in Jefferson, Georgia with his wife, Jennifer, and their three children.

Malone Plumbing, Inc. is a commercial and service plumbing company based in Jefferson, Georgia, two exits north of Chateau Elan on I-85N. The company has been involved in numerous multi-million dollar projects throughout the Atlanta area, and is currently involved with numerous high-level projects in the Metro area and the Southeast.

Malone Plumbing, Inc. specializes in commercial plumbing projects, emergency service plumbing and residential plumbing, and its reach extends throughout the state of Georgia and into several neighboring states.
